

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1891.

PADUCAH has about concluded a deal by which some 300 acres of suburban land is to be converted into a beautiful park.

THE brick work on Paducah's $200,000 hotel is finished and the work on the interior will be continued through the winter months. It has been leased for a term of years.

A HARD rain prevailed yesterday and last night. A cold wave reached here this morning and a regular blizzard is now prevailing, a blinding snow storm having set in about 9 o'clock.

FOR ulcers, scrofulous affections, boils, pimples and blood poison, Pioneer Sarsaparilla is commended to the masses. Placed within the reach of all. Price, 50 cents. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

MR. FLETCHER and Mr. Moore, big manufacturers of Indianapolis, Mr. Lyman, Secretary and Treasurer of the natural gas company of that place, accompanied by Mr. Julius J. Haag, were here Saturday on fuel gas business.

AN extra supply of turkeys, game, oysters, celery, cranberries oranges, bananas and everything nice for Thanksgiving. Place your orders early and you will get first choice.

THE court of appeals in affirming the case of Reynolds' executor against Boyd, taken up from this county, says: "where executors are invested by the will with a mere naked power to sell the real estate and distribute the proceeds the title does not vest in them and they can not maintain ejectment."

THE people of Maysville and surrounding country who fail to attend the entertainment at the opera house Thanksgiving night will undoubtedly miss the greatest treat of the season. Such a grand double attraction as Margaret Reid and James Whitcomb Riley should pack the opera house to its fullest seating capacity.

RT. REV. BISHOP MAES, of Covington, who has been the guest of Rev. Father Glorieux, received as white veiled nuns, on Saturday morning, two young ladies at the Academy of the Visitation, one of them Miss Katie Murphy, of Moransburg. Yesterday the Bishop gave the congregation a short instruction and imparted the Papal benediction to the members of St. Patrick's Church.

Here and There

Miss Robert C. Vawter, of Mississippi, is the guest of Miss Susie Huston Hall, of Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Clarke, of Miami, Ohio, and Mr. Charles Cook, of Covington, were here yesterday attending the funeral of Mrs. Phillip Clarke.

Margaret Reid, the gifted lyric soprano, will arrive to-day to complete arrangements for the grand concert Thanksgiving night. She will be the guest of Mrs. M. C. Russell.

Railway News.

Cincinnati ranks as the fourth largest railroad center in this country, leading such cities as Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore.

Ten earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the second week of November show an increase of $26,279.02 over those for corresponding week of last year. The figures are:

1891.....	$194,000 24
1891.....	188,711 62
Increase.....	$ 5,289 22

Not long since a train on the New York Central ran 95 miles in 90 minutes. A gentleman who was aboard says: "Half the time I thought the car had left the track and was sailing through midair. The speed was awful. One could hardly keep his seat, and when we passed a village the lights ran together in white streaks. I don't care to ride any faster."

For the Farmer.

New tobacco is averaging high in Louisville.

One firm at Hillsboro, O., has shipped 2,300 barrels of apples this season, and another dealer has handled 10,000 bushels.

The Liggett & Meyers Plug Tobacco Manufacturing Company, of St. Louis, has established an agency at Shelbyville, and will buy the weed direct from the growers.

The following sales of new tobacco to Mr. Collins, of Mt. Carmel, are reported: J. R. Davis, 9,000 pounds at 8 cents; H. Arnold, 5,000 pounds at 8 cents; Charles Putnam, 3,000 pounds at same price; Robert Becket, 6,500 pounds; 3,500 at 8 cents and 3,000 at 7 1/2; Clay Davis, about 5,000 pounds at 10 cents, an extra crop, all to be delivered in January.

A Free-for-all Fusillade at a Dance
Near Donnerail, Fayette County.

A dance was given Friday night at the home of William Bennett, near Donnerail, Fayette County, which broke up in a free-for-all shooting match. A special says Robert Sebree was acting as prompter, when Walter Arnsperger, Oscar Lawless and another young man began to play him. Some of the young ladies, believing there was going to be trouble, stopped the dance. Sebree then got into a fight with the three young men and commenced firing. Sebree's younger brother John, aged seventeen years, then drew a revolver and took a hand in the battle. A terrible scene took place in the room, which was full of people, more than half of whom were ladies. A panic ensued. Ladies screamed and jumped from the windows. The Sebrees fired eleven shots. When the smoke cleared away it was found that Arnsperger had received four balls in his body—two in the left side, one in the right breast and one under the right shoulder. His wounds are fatal. There were nine bullet holes in his clothes. Oscar Lawless was shot in the back of the neck, and Ed. Clans, who was in no way engaged in the difficulty, was shot in the collar-bone. Robert Sebree had five wounds in the head, and claims he was first assaulted by Arnsperger, and fired in self defense; also that one of the party drew a pistol on John before he fired. There was a previous difficulty between the men at a dance near Payne's Depot, about a month ago.

Bennett moved to Donnerail from the vicinity of Moransburg a few years ago.

Packing and Provisions.

[Cincinnati Price Current.] Hogs have been marketed in very liberal numbers the past week, packing returns showing a total of 510,000 for the week, compared with 385,000 the preceding week, and $25,000 for the corresponding period last year. From November 1 the aggregate is 1,060,000 hogs, against 1,340,000 a year ago. Current offerings are of improved quality as a rule. The average of prices has slightly declined for the week, closing steady. The enlarged supply has met with a good demand, the cooler weather since early in the week being favorable to movement of green or partially cured meats. Current inquiry for product from consuming markets is good, and rather more encouragement in regard to the demands for meats from foreign markets. The general position has not greatly changed during the week. Export clearances for the week were fairly good of bacon, about the same as for corresponding period last year, while the movement of lard was especially liberal, largely exceeding last year's figures. Values for leading articles at Chicago for January delivery close a little higher than a week ago, and represents a basis of about $5.00 for hogs.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

A Banker's Advice—Real Estate Investments Recommended.

[Henry Clews in the Ladies' Home-Journal.] It does not require a genius to make money. The first step in acquiring a fortune lies in hard work. Be brave, be generous, be helpful, be honest, do not over-work, keep in good health, cultivate your mind, be pure, and to these add thrift and you need not fear. You can not fail. Begin right. Keep a bank account. When you have saved $100, $200, or $500, look about for a good investment. Real estate is usually a good investment. More money has been made in real estate than in any stock or bonds or railroad shares. In fact, it should be the basis of every man's fortune. Before you invest a penny, get the best counsel on the subject before you invest. Go to some good, conservative man and get his views. I should advise the same course if you should put your money in stock or bonds or railroad shares. In fact, I should urge, before you invest a penny, that you get the best counsel on the subject to aid you in taking the right course. If your first investment prospers, by careful management and always being on the alert, you can increase your fortune by reinvesting your profits.

Thanksgiving's Coming.

The turkey lingers all forlorn, With woe in every feature, He turns aside from toothsome corn, Who contemplates with untold grief What some folks call a blessing, And sadly swears he'd just as lief Abjure expensive dressing. —Washington Star.
